Disaster Support Resources Post-Hurricane Information

You may be eligible for disaster assistance funding and services from FEMA as well as other State, community, and private organizations. Please refer to the following resources to help you recover from recent disasters or visit www.FEMA.gov for a complete list of disaster support services.

Filing your insurance claim

If you have insurance, it's important to call your agent or insurance company as soon as possible to begin the claims process.

- Call 1-800-427-4661 the National Flood Insurance Program if you are unable to locate important policy information or need help contacting your insurance company.
- Call 1-800-942-4242 the Hurricane Insurance Information Center to get the contact information for your insurance company.

FEMA—Register for housing and other aid

We urge you to register for FEMA assistance to gain access to a number of important resources. FEMA can provide additional information and assistance for losses not covered by insurance coverage including temporary housing and repair assistance.

- Call 1-800-621-FEMA (3362) / 1-800-462-7585 (TTY) or register online at www.fema.gov/register.shtm

Housing Needs

Temporary Housing (a place to live for a limited period of time):

Money is available to rent a different place to live, or a government provided housing unit when rental properties are not available

Transitional Housing Assistance Program

- Disaster Assistance provides $2,358 per household, as an initial payment for three month's rental assistance, and may be extended for qualifying applicants for up to 18 months.
- This amount is included in the calculation of total benefits for which you may be eligible. It may cover only a portion of the total assistance that you need. After going through the normal eligibility process you may receive additional payments of assistance.
- Repair:
Money is available to homeowners to repair damage from the disaster to their primary residence that is not covered by insurance. The goal is to make the damaged home safe, sanitary, and functional.
- Replacement:
Money is available to homeowners to replace their home destroyed in the disaster that is not covered by insurance. The goal is to help the homeowner with the cost of replacing their destroyed home.
- Permanent Housing Construction:
Direct assistance or money for the construction of a home. This type of help occurs only in insular areas or remote locations specified by FEMA, where no other type of housing assistance is possible.

Food Stamp Assistance

You may be eligible to receive disaster food stamp assistance through the state. for more information about Food Stamps

- Call 1-888-312-4567.

Small Business Administration (SBA)

After you register with FEMA, you may be referred to the SBA for information about a low-interest loan. The SBA is the primary source of federal funds for long-term recovery assistance. The SBA has loan officers in the Disaster Recovery Centers to provide assistance in filling out your SBA application and explaining the program.

- www.sba.gov

American Red Cross

Contact the American Red Cross if you have immediate emergency needs for food, clothing, shelter, or medical care.

- Call 1-866-438-4636 to talk to a Red Cross Representative.

State Insurance Commissioners

Complaints against insurance agents and/or companies can be filed with the state department of insurance.
